
INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

REMGRO invests in businesses that can deliver superior earnings and dividend growth over the long term. This involves the acquisition of meaningful interests in companies that have sound management and have the ability to generate strong cash returns and growth. Remgro forges strategic alliances on a partnership basis and endeavours to add value where possible. The purpose is to ensure excellent returns to shareholders by way of dividend and capital growth.

GROUP PROFILE

REMGRO LIMITED is an investment holding company established with effect from 1 April 2000, after the restructuring of the former Rembrandt Group Limited. The Group's interests consist of investments in tobacco products, banking and financial services, printing and packaging, motor components, medical services, mining, petroleum products, food, wine and spirits and various other trade mark products.

The Company's activities are concentrated mainly on the management of investments and the provision of support rather than on being involved in the day-to-day management of business units of investees.

Subsidiaries not wholly owned are mainly listed companies with independent boards of directors on which this Company has non-executive representation. Non-subsidiary investments comprise both listed and unlisted companies not controlled by this Company and which are mostly associated companies due to significant influence and Board representation.
